MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

FROM:

Director of Training and Education

SUBJECT:

Student Critiques

Harry:

1. After our 17 January meeting in your office to discuss the current CT Class and the recently completed I have had an opportunity to read the student critiques submitted by the students. They are attached hereto for your information, and I think it is terribly important that you take the time necessary to read each of them.

2. My reading of the critiques has added to my confusion and left me even more disturbed than before. The majority of the critiques reflects considerable thought and attention having been devoted by the individual students. They do not give one the impression that they were merely dashed off in order to fulfill some requirement. They also reflect, with but a few exceptions, an enthusiastic endorsement of the course and of the staff. There are criticisms to be sure, but most of these deal with particular subjects or emphasis and seem to have been made in a constructive manner. The only consistent criticism running through almost all the critiques is the one which speaks to the lack of sufficient

3. On the assumption that these critiques have some validity, it is difficult for me to sort out the complaints that have been registered relating to this particular running. Maybe the interviews that are being conducted by officers of the CT Staff will give us further insights, but to date all the evidence that I have been able to obtain seems to indicate that are getting a bum rap.
